

*"You don't find yourself.
You write yourself.
One honest sentence at a time."*

The Reinvention Workbook is a guided writing practice for people in the middle of becoming someone new. Twenty exercises across four parts — the identity audit, excavating the old story, voice and narrative, and building the new draft — take you through the same process used to help 200+ founders, executives, and creators rewrite the story they were handed into one they'd actually sign.

MK Parrish is a brand voice strategist, ghostwriter, and author of The Margins newsletter on Substack. She writes about voice, identity, and the economics of language at mkparrish.com.
